

BUSINESS AND DIGITAL ELECTION LAW

We transform electoral challenges into strategies for business and digital success

Considering the impacts of various electoral regulations on traditional companies and online platforms, which have become the focus of important debates, our firm has a team dedicated to working on all fronts of Corporate Electoral Law and Digital Electoral Law.

Our professionals are active participants in the Electoral Law market, having worked in several elections during both the preparatory and contentious phases, as well as participating on panels at major Electoral Law events in the country, and authoring articles that impact the increasingly in-depth discussions on the subject. Based on our experience, we provide comprehensive support.

We are a pioneer in structuring a practice that offers personalized planning and, among other activities, encompasses: consulting; legislative and regulatory strategic planning; and electoral litigation.
