

COMPLIANCE & INVESTIGATION

A strategic partner, advising clients on how to conduct business with reduced risk

A trailblazer and market leader, our Compliance and Investigation practice is led by seasoned and recognized professionals, focused on global trends and with extensive knowledge of the legal landscape and best practices in compliance. Our approach goes beyond anti-corruption specialization; we understand, anticipate, and mitigate reputational risks for clients across a variety of sectors. We are also recognized for advising publicly traded multinational companies and handling cases across multiple jurisdictions.

We have extensive experience advising companies, boards of directors, and independent committees on the prevention, identification, and remediation of anti-corruption law violations, fraud, and other matters. Our team has participated in the largest corporate investigations in Brazil and is ready to guide clients through government and internal investigations and representation in settlements with authorities.

With a multidisciplinary culture, our partners coordinate various teams within the firm, focusing on efficiency, excellence in delivery, and a sense of urgency in their interactions with our clients. All partners on the Compliance and Investigations team are CCEP and CCEP-I certified by the Society of Corporate Compliance and Ethics (SCCE) and lead a team dedicated to compliance and investigations. Our experience in relevant and complex cases, combined with the partners' expertise in Administrative, Antitrust, Litigation, Criminal, and Corporate Law, make our team a benchmark.

EXPERIENCE

- We advised a European multinational company on an internal investigation involving allegations of corruption, bid rigging, and other matters. We coordinated the investigation in 17 different jurisdictions, assisting with government agreements in Brazil and abroad (with the assistance of local partners), and structuring the compliance department and its integrity program.
- We advised a publicly traded Brazilian retail company on an internal investigation involving allegations of accounting fraud, reporting to the Audit Committee and coordinating interactions during the shadow investigation. Based on the investigation's results, we presented recommendations for remediation measures, which were adopted by the company and included the review/implementation of certain internal practices and controls.
- We advised a North American multinational company on an internal investigation involving allegations of corruption and bid-rigging, and on the negotiation of a leniency agreement with Brazilian authorities. We also advised the client on fulfilling all compliance obligations established in the agreement during the monitoring period conducted by the Comptroller General's Office (CGU).
- We advised a Korean multinational company on an integrity risk analysis, including risks of corruption, fraud, harassment, conflicts of interest, data privacy, and other integrity risks. Our work included interviews with 44 of the client's employees, across 20 areas of the company. As part of our work, we also presented several recommendations to mitigate the identified integrity risks.
