

CORPORATE LAW AND FOREIGN INVESTMENT

We connect global investors to Brazil with strategy, security, and legal expertise

Considered one of the firm's most dynamic and strategic practices, our Corporate Law and Foreign Investment practice reflects the significant growth of our international presence in Brazil in recent years. With extensive experience advising foreign investors, our team is prepared to support clients from entry into the Brazilian market to the expansion of already established operations, always focusing on legal certainty, efficiency, and regulatory compliance.

We offer comprehensive support in the formation of corporate structures, mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, and strategic partnerships, as well as advisory services on complex and multidisciplinary commercial transactions. Our in-depth knowledge of Brazilian law, combined with the specificities of the local business environment, enables investors to capitalize on the opportunities arising from economic liberalization and regional integration.

As a full-service firm with a national and international presence, we work synergistically with areas such as Tax, Labor, Banking, Capital Markets, Contracts, and Regulation, ensuring a coordinated and effective approach. Our practice is characterized by customized solutions tailored to each client's profile and objectives, with special attention to compliance and corporate governance requirements.
