

GAMING & E-SPORTS

Solid and innovative legal solutions for a constantly evolving segment

Our Gaming & E-sports practice group was a pioneer in the country, with 10 years of extensive experience in one of the fastest-growing industries in recent years. We are ready to advise our clients in a constantly changing and evolving legal environment. At the forefront of transformation, we participate in discussions on major regulatory changes and transactions in the country.

We represent a diverse range of stakeholders and industry participants, from domestic startups to international conglomerates, including game producers, equipment producers, software producers, lottery operators, sports betting companies, e-sports entities, and service providers, as well as payment processors, certifiers, and marketing companies.

Our Gaming & E-sports practice offers multidisciplinary services in regulatory, tax, criminal, intellectual property, government relations, and transactional law. We work with market-leading teams specializing in compliance, privacy, and litigation, bringing together all the expertise needed to tackle any legal challenge. Our full-service infrastructure allows us to engage teams from related industries, such as Telecommunications, Media, Private Equity & Venture Capital, and Information Technology, in addition to the support of “ThinkFuture”, our innovation program.
