Sound analysis of tax obligations is essential for business planning and for the assessment of business viability. Furthermore, in administrative and judicial proceedings, a proactive approach to tax reduction and recovery, in Brazil, is a key element of business competitiveness.

We stand ready to offer our clients the best tax solutions to their businesses in Brazil or abroad, whether that involves the advisory and litigation spheres (administrative and judicial), identifying the problem, proposing solutions, or highlighting opportunities relating to the tax liability of the business.

Our Tax team deals with industry-specific tax issues across sectors such as automotive, defense and aerospace, energy, pharmaceutical, logistics, oil and gas, telecommunications, information technology, services and retail. The group's experience includes counsel on a wide variety of transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, corporate restructuring, international trade, transactions in the financial sector, greenfield projects, capital markets, asset planning, as well as on matters of high relevance and complexity.

Our multidisciplinary approach enables us to provide an accurate and practical answer focused on the peculiarities of our clients' businesses, offering tailored solutions that combine deep technical knowledge with dynamism.
